Thank you On behalf of the parish we would like to express our gratitude for all your support both in your prayers and financially.. For everyone it has been a difficult and challenging time during this pandemic. With months of Church closures our income has been significantly reduced but we thank all those who have standing orders or made donations to keep us financially stable. Without this regular income we would have struggled. Thank you for all your continued support from standing orders, weekly offerings, card and online donations and the further revenue received from Gift Aid.
