Lenten Appeal for the construction of a wall fence for a Health Unit: As I mentioned last week proposing a Lenten Appeal for those who are able to donate and support a project back in Uganda, my home parish runs a Maternity Clinic with admissions and the parish would like to construct a wall fence for security. This facility and unit was built by the parishioners as the Church does so, with support and provision of health, education and other services. They would like build a perimeter fence to provide some security and convenience to the mothers admitted in the facility. For those who would like to support the appeal they can use the Parish Bank Account with deposit as Lenten Appeal or use other means with the reason for the donation clearly marked as Lenten Appeal. Thank you very much.

Lenten Reflections: Sacrifice, covenant promises, and redemption are "covenant-relationship" themes which run through our readings today. Because of Abraham's willingness to obey, the covenant promise to make him the father of many nations is renewed. The story of Abraham's willingness to obey GOD's request (to offer his son as a sacrifice to GOD) has many powerful ideas for us to ponder. It must have been very challenging for Abraham to be requested to sacrifice the very offspring through whom the covenant promise of a future nation would come. Abraham had placed hope in Isaac as the child of the promise which GOD made to Abraham.
